ANNIVERSARIES

Lasting Love

GLACIER FIRE DIAMOND

History is filled with romantic moments & jewellery has long been a traditional gift of lasting love. The tradition of wearing a wedding ring on the fourth finger of the left hand dates back to ancient Egypt. It was thought that the vena amoris, or vein of love, ran from this finger directly to the heart. The first recorded engagement ring was given in 1477 by Archduke Maximilian of Austria to his betrothed, Mary of Burgundy. Since, then the tradition has grown and spread across the world as the ultimate symbol of love and sacred symbol of lifelong commitment.

A Glacier Fire diamond continues this tradition as a timeless symbol of love.

Being truly Canadian, the upmost respect was given to the protection of wildlife and the preservation of our Canadian landscape. Every effort been made to mine in a socially and environmentally conscious way with local government and the First Nations peoples' agreements established to ensure that the land and its resources are being protected. After all, you and our very Canadian identity are concerned with preserving our environment, now and for years to come.

From beautiful comes beautiful.

Diamond Mines

CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITY

Canadian diamonds are known world-wide for their quality. From the beginning Canadian mines established some of the highest environmental & quality standards in the world.

There are four diamond mines in Canada. The first Canadian diamond was unearthed in 1999. Canada is now the third largest supplier of diamonds in the world.

A Canadian diamond Code of Conduct was created to ensure a rigorous standard was applied to the authenticity of all Canadian Diamonds with tracking identification from rough diamond to polished one.

Certificate of Origin

A TRUE PIECE OF THE CANADIAN NORTH

The certificate of origin gives you absolute assurance that your diamond is truly a Canadian diamond. Like all Canadian diamonds, yours is laser inscribed with an identification number to authenticate that it is in fact Canadian.

The certificate that accompanies each Canadian diamond also describes the pedigree of the stone, from the mine to finished piece. The Canadian Diamond is the first diamond of its kind in the world.

Authentically Canadian.
Forever yours.

KEYS ELEMENTS OF A DIAMOND

The key elements of a diamond are referred to as the "4 C's" which establishes the rarity and value of the diamond.

CUT - The cut determines the brilliance of a diamond that dictates the maximum amount of light that will reflect through the diamond. Cut also refers to the shape of the diamond.

COLOUR - In colour grading a diamond the absence of colour determines colour and value.

CLARITY - Clarity refers to the presence of the diamond's internal & external characteristics. The characteristics of a diamond are considered to be nature's fingerprints.

CARAT WEIGHT - The carat is the standard measure of a diamond's weight. Carat weight is one of the factors in determining the value of a diamond.
